- time for shareholders and their representatives to complete and submit (hand over) voting ballots – ten (10) minutes after the end of discussion on the last agenda item for which the quorum is present.

8.5. The Company shall ensure that votes are counted and tabulated and voting results are announced before the end of the General Meeting of Shareholders. After announcing the resolutions passed by the General Meeting of Shareholders and the voting results, the Chair of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall declare the meeting closed.

8.6. The Company's General Meeting of Shareholders shall be held and completed within one (1) day.

Article 9. Voting at the General Meeting of Shareholders, counting of votes, and formalisation of the meeting results

9.1. Shareholders shall exercise their voting rights at the General Meeting of Shareholders on the basis of the “one share – one vote” principle, except for the cumulative voting held to elect the Company's Board of Directors.

9.2. Completed and signed voting ballots shall be collected by the Registrar.

If meeting participants fail to submit their voting ballots for any reason whatsoever, such participants shall be deemed to have not participated in the General Meeting of Shareholders and their votes shall be disregarded during the counting.

A person completing a voting ballot may request that a copy thereof be certified by the Registrar's representatives before the end of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The Company shall provide persons who participate in the General Meeting of Shareholders with an opportunity to make a copy of their completed voting ballots at the expense of such persons.

9.3. When choosing to vote against a specific agenda item, the meeting participants shall have the right to request that the minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders reflect the roll-call vote results.

9.4. The Registrar shall not tabulate votes pertaining to the election of nominees to the Company's bodies who refused to run for election in writing or announced their refusal to run for election in the course of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

If the agenda of the Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders includes early termination of powers and re-election of the Company's Board of Directors, and a resolution on the early termination of powers has not been passed, the Registrar shall not tabulate votes cast during the cumulative voting to elect a new Board of Directors.

If the number of nominees to the Board of Directors included in the voting ballots exceeds the number of vacant positions on the Board of Directors, and several candidates receive an equally small number of votes, precluding the Registrar from determining which of them have been elected to the vacant positions on the Board of Directors, the candidates nominated by shareholders who hold a relatively larger number of the Company's voting shares shall be deemed to have been elected to the Board of Directors. If the candidates were nominated by the same shareholder or by shareholders who hold an equal number of shares, the older candidate shall be deemed to have been elected.

If the Registrar receives a court judgement or a ruling prohibiting certain shareholders from exercising the voting rights attached to their shares, the voting ballot of such shareholders shall be disregarded during the counting.

9.5. Voting ballots shall be considered void and shall not be counted, if:

- they contain uncertified corrections, including those made in relation to the voting option chosen by the shareholder;
- the voting ballot submitted to the Registrar does not meet the requirements set out by the Company's Board of Directors for the ballot wording and form;
- the voting ballot contains more than one voting option, unless the votes are cast on instructions of the persons who acquired the shares after the record date, or instructions of the owners of depositary securities. The voting ballot shall be deemed to contain only one voting option, if all the other voting options are struck through;
- the voting ballot is not signed by a meeting participant;
- the Company receives voting ballots signed by a representative acting by virtue of a power of attorney, which is followed by a notice of replacement (recall) of such representative delivered no later than two (2) days before the date of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
- two (2) or more voting ballots supporting different voting options for the same agenda item are completed by the same person, as identified during the counting of votes;
- the voting ballot pertaining to the election of the Company's Review Committee (Review Officer) leaves more nominees supported by the affirmative vote than the number of positions in the body to be elected;
- the voting ballot provides affirmative votes for alternative voting options;
- during the cumulative voting, a shareholder distributes more votes among the nominees to the Company's Board of Directors than the number of votes such a shareholder is entitled to;
- the voting ballots are submitted to the Registrar after the counting of votes has already started.

9.6 After the voting the Registrar shall draft minutes of the voting results. Minutes of the voting results shall be drafted within three (3) business days after the closure of the General Meeting of Shareholders or the final date for submitting voting ballots in case of a General Meeting of Shareholders held in the form of absentee voting.

9.7. Resolutions passed by the General Meeting of Shareholders and the voting results shall be announced during the General Meeting of Shareholders at which the vote took place, and shall be communicated to the persons entitled to participate in the General Meeting in the form of a report on the voting results in line with the General Meeting notification procedure, i.e. within four (4) business days after the closure of the General Meeting or the final date for submitting the voting ballots in case of a General Meeting held in the form of absentee voting.

Should a person on the Company's share register be a nominee shareholder as at the record date of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the report on the voting results shall be sent to such nominee shareholder as prescribed by the Russian securities laws in the realm of provision of information and documents to the persons executing rights attached to securities.

The report on the voting results of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be signed by the Chair and the Secretary of the General Meeting of Shareholders.
